

The G20 at the Leader's Level

The New Multilateralism: Moving from Reflection to Reform

Government of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada

Canada

The Centre for International
Governance Innovation
Centre pour l'innovation dans la gouvernance internationale

Brussels, Belgium    May 12, 2005

Meeting Agenda

Wednesday, May 11th, 2005

Welcome Dinner -- Introduction to L20 concept

Overview of the Issue -- The new multilateralism: moving from Reflection to Reform

Thursday, May 12th, 2005

10:00      Opening Remarks: Jeremy Kinsman, Canada's Ambassador to the European Union

General Introduction: Gordon Smith, Director, Centre for Global Studies and Paul Heinbecker, Senior Fellow, Centre for International Governance Innovation

How did we get here and what did we learn? Potential recommendations and Practical measures for the September Summit

Session 1: Millennium Development Goals

Introduction: John McArthur, Manager of the UN Millennium Project

First response: John Sewell, Senior Scholar, Woodrow Wilson International Centre for Scholars

11:30-11:45      Tea and Coffee Break

Session 2: Security Reforms

Introduction: Gareth Evans, President, International Crisis Group

First response: François Heisbourg, Chairman of the IISS Council

Session 3: Institutional Reforms

Introduction: Jim Cloos, Director, Transatlantic relations, United Nations and Human rights, Council of the European Union

First response: Ferry de Kerckhove, Director General, International Organizations Bureau, Foreign Affairs Canada

13:00

Working Lunch

Making the new multilateralism happen?

Conclusions of the Conference “Adapting the UN to the 21st Century”, held in Waterloo, Canada, April 3-5, 2005, under the auspices of The Centre for International Governance Innovation

Introduction: Paul Heinbecker, The Centre for International Governance Innovation

First response: Robert Cooper, Director General, External Economic Relations, Common Foreign and Security Policy

14:30

Afternoon session

How do we get there?

What initiatives?

Next steps?

Leaders (L-20 or others) Summit?

16:00

Summary of workshop outcomes & closing remarks