

New Perspectives on Regimes to Control WMD
Preliminary
PROGRAM
Livermore, California
January 20-21, 2006

FRIDAY, JANURAY 20, 2006 — Wente Vineyard Restaurant

- 3:30p Keynote Address at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory from Under Secretary of State for Arms Control and International Security Affairs Amb. Robert Joseph Delivered by Dr. Susan Koch, Senior Advisor to the Under Secretary “Combating WMD: Effective Multilateralism”
- 5:30p Reception
- 6:00p Dinner
- 7:00p Q & A on “Combating WMD: Effective Multilateralism”
 - Gordon Smith and Ronald Lehman
- 8:30p Adjourn

New Perspectives on Regimes to Control WMD

PROGRAM
Livermore, California
January 20-21, 2006

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 2006 Martinelli Event Center

8:30-9:00a Continental Breakfast

9:00-9:15a Background, Context and Introduction
- Gordon Smith and Ronald Lehman

9:15-9:45a Problematique and Diagnosis
- Paul Heinbecker and Michael Moodie

9:45-11:00a The Nuclear Nonproliferation Regime

- The Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty
- The International Atomic Energy Agency
- The Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty
- Supplier Control Mechanisms
- Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zones

Moderator
Therèsè Delpeche
Atomic Energy Commission

11:00a Coffee break

11:15a The Biological and Chemical Nonproliferation Regime

- The Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention
- The Chemical Weapons Convention
- Australia Group

Terry Taylor
Intl. Institute for Strategic Studies

12:30-1:30p Lunch

1:30-3:30p Initiatives and New Perspectives

- Co-operative Threat Reduction
- The Proliferation Security Initiative
- United Nations Security Council Resolution 1540
- New Perspectives

Guy Roberts
NATO

3:30-4:30p Mapping the Way Forward – Synthesis

Gordon Smith/
Ronald Lehman

4:30p Adjourn