

BREAKING GLOBAL DEADLOCKS:

The Future of International Governance Architecture

March 10-11, 2008

Mexico City

Tlatelolco Building, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Mexico

Agenda

MARCH 10

Morning/Afternoon	Participants arrive to Mexico City
7:15 PM	Departure for Ministry (walking)
7:30 PM for 8:00 PM	Dinner (hosted by the Mexican Ministry of Foreign Affairs)

---

MARCH 11

Morning	Breakfast at the Hotel
8:30 AM	Meeting at the Lobby and departure for Ministry (walking)
9:00 AM -9:30 AM	Opening and Introductions
9:30 AM- 6:00 PM	Global Governance Structures: Challenges and Perspectives on Reform

- 9:30 AM – 12:00 PM

Global Economic Issues

Addressing 21st century challenges to international governance architecture for international finance:

- International financial architecture (Pedro Malan)
- Response (Eric Helleiner)
- Informal governance structures: the role of the G7, the G20 and the new emerging economies (Paul Martin)
- New Financial Mechanisms for Climate Change Mitigation and Adaptation (Eric Vogt)

- 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM

Development, Political and Security Issues

- Development on the international agenda (Fransisco Suárez)

- UNFCCC and Post-Bali scenarios (Mario Molina)
- Security issues (Stephen Steadman)
- UN Reform (Robert Fowler)
- Governance reform and the UN (Juan Manuel Gómez Robledo)

▪ 2:00 PM -3:00 PM                    Working Luncheon

▪ 3:00 PM -5:30 PM                    Informal Global Governance Structures: The Interaction between the G5 and the G8

- The role of the G5 (Lourdes Aranda)
- The Facts- the current G8+5 (Michael Small)
- Six Options for the future (Gordon Smith)
- Pro and cons for moving quickly to a G13 (Andrés Rozental)
- Response (Xue Lan)
- The role of the civil society in contemporary diplomacy (John Sewell)
- Discussion

▪ 5:30 PM – 6:00 PM                    Conclusions

6:15 PM                    Departure for the Canadian Ambassador’s Residence (bus provided by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs)

7:00 PM                    Reception (hosted by the Canadian Ambassador to Mexico)

9:00 PM                    Return to the Hotel (bus provided by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs)

